

Monday's Swiss Pairs Competition 30 June 2014

Here is a photo of winners of the Swiss Pairs played today - Jen Ardill and Cath Whiddon, together with our President and the Director for the day - Alan Davies.

The Swiss Pairs introduced many players to something different. It was played over 4 rounds with 6 boards in each round.

Winners after the 1st round, and hence moving to Table 1 for Round 2, were Janice McAndrew and Kay Outram; and Jen Ardill with partner Cath Whiddon (not shown).

For Round 3, Jen and Cath are still at Table 1, but now joined by challengers Barbara Delangre and Margaret Bird

Trish Giles and Anita Kite come to Table 1 to challenge Jen and Cath in final round of the Swiss pairs. A very close tussle but Jen and Cath managed to retain their 1st place.

Ray Bragge and Ken Watson squeezed into 2nd place; with Trish and Anita 3rd.

It was great to see Monday's relaxed 'red' row players at Table 1 - they loved it too! And all players seemed to enjoy the different Monday experience. Alan did great job organising, explaining and directing - thank you Alan.
