There are no such criteria for the d'Orsi Seniors Bowl or the Mixed Teams Championship. Twenty-twenty is (or was) a World Bridge Games (WBG) year. The WBF has outlined a plan to hold the WBG early in 2021, then continue with its regularly scheduled events. This means that the BB, VC, d'Orsi Trophy, Wuhan Cup and concomitant Pairs Championships would be held later in the same year, necessitating a trip to Salsomaggiore for the WBG should an NBO wish to compete in the BB/VC. Recognising that NBOs' revenue worldwide has been drastically reduced by the inability of bridge clubs to operate as they normally would, if at all, the Australian Bridge Federation and New Zealand Bridge Inc. (with a combined 50,000 members) have sent a joint, open letter to the WBF Management Committee requesting that the WBF rescind that requirement for the coming two BB/VC events. They: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. request greater transparency and open communication between the WBF and NBOs 2. express concern about a potentially congested 2021 bridge calendar 3. state that latterly scheduled WBF events may conflict with already scheduled NBO national championships 4. are leery of the financial burden of two World Championships in the same year 5. ask if the WBF has a plan to offer financial assistance to NBOs that are struggling to support their clubs 6. argue for the need for a waiver of the BB/VC participation requirement for 2021 7. wish to conduct their Zonal Playoff electronically and seek approval to do so. I am wholeheartedly in agreement with all of the ABF and NZB requests. I disagree with the WBF's BB/VC eligibility requirement entirely anyway, believing it to be elitist, biased toward Europe and tremendously disadvantageous to the less-affluent and smaller member NBOs, who might have to travel at great expense to Asia or Europe to compete. I'd go further than the suggestion of the ABF and NZB: I'd plump for the WBF simply delaying all of their events by a year – hold the WBG in 2021 and the next BB/VC in 2022, the Rosenblum/McConnell/World Open Pairs in 2023 and so on. I am certain that most, if not all, member NBOs would agree to that without demur. Let's hope the WBF consults them.
